Dear Homophobe,

When I was growing up, you always told me that Jesus loves me. Now that you know I'm gay, God Hates Fags, why is that?

Please tell me exactly what Jesus said about homosexuality.

Why do I have to choose between having a relationship with God, or being gay?

If homosexuality is a sin, and God forgives all sins, why am I going to burn in hell?

If homosexuality threatens the sanctity of marriage, why is divorce allowed and why do divorce rates continue to rise?

Will telling me I'm going to hell get you into heaven?

Will telling me God hates me, make him love you more?

Does believing I have achieved the so called worst sin make you feel better about yours?

If I'm nothing but an abomination, why would God create me in the first place? You told me he doesn't make mistakes.

If I can choose to be gay, then so can't you? That hot girl you fantasize about everyday, can you choose to not be attracted to her?

How about the woman you married, do you choose to love her?

If God is love and in him, there is no darkness, where does the hate that you have for me come from?

Please answer these questions for me. Then maybe I can understand your logic and magically be heterosexual.

Thanks,

gerald
